Chapter 12

母 (Mother)

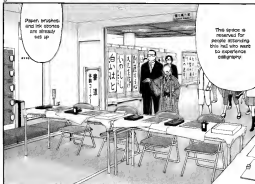

We'll do it as well

Yes, we'll do it.

Are you serious for it?

Do you want to?

Well then...

Since you three have 16 people total, let's do a 16 person karyū.

Even though you said a while back that your calligraphy club was probably going to be closed down, you still have the gall to challenge us.

You have some nerve, Hiroshi.

WHY ARE YOU TALKING DOWN TO US?

SUGGEST! SUGGEST! LIST!

ALRIGHT! STRATEGY TIME!

母

The karyū will be "mother".

GOOD AFTERNOON. WE ARE FROM KUGUMURA ACADEMY'S CALLIGRAPHY CLUB.

For some reason it reminded me of that.

But, it's not like they were exactly alike. The "Kiyosaki" is all right, but the letter also had fragments.

What are you talking about? No way I'm going to show you the letter!

I want to see it!

What? Is their handwriting that similar?

We both lived in Fujisawa but we went to different schools...

It probably wasn't Teikokuwan-san.

That never happens in real life.

Even if it wasn't him who wrote that letter...

Oh, even even though it would be very romantic if your first love would reappear after many years.

Even when he heard my name he wasn't surprised or anything.

Taiyaki-kun

Then after they are done watching, you make them think, "wow I'm amazed, I'm so glad I stopped and saw the whole thing." It's not like they are going to say your level of competence was high you know!

When it comes to street performances spectators stop and think, "I wonder what's going to happen next?" that is the reason they take a look.

SO YOU'RE SAYING YOU GUYS CAN DO A MUCH MORE ENTERTAINING PERFORMANCE THAN US?

Acting all high and mighty for someone who did nothing!

Gen...

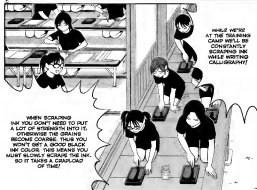

Ah she had to call it

It'll be a piece of cake to get more spectators than you guys!

Damn, strategy we can!

Oh come on, Youkimi you know we obviously can't...

Those two are trying to get a hold of the love letter Mochizuki-san got when she was in grade school.

Sh?

You have to tell Mochizuki-san right away!

Listen up, Derfurd!

They weren't going to tell Mochizuki-san, then they were going to use the letter to write a huge written copy in secret! Their plan is to reveal it to the crowd at the audition.

They were talking about having some trick that would surprise everyone at the end of the performance...

ARE YOU SERIOUS?!

WHAT?!

I'M COUNTING ON YOU NOW!

We're from Suzuki high school's calligraphy club.

Excuse me.

You thank you
for having us.
Nice to meet
you.

I'm the teacher
of Kamekaido.
My name is Iyosai.

Thank you
for coming here in middle
of summer.
We've been waiting for you.

Oh is that so?
Where are they right now?

Oh yes,
the people
from Kuguruma academy are already here.

Thank you
so much.

It is against our Buddhist teachings
to borrow things.
So we won't mind.

Having
to stop
the dog?
Well there can't much that can be done about it.

Kupetuna academy's students and teacher approve of my suggestion. They immediately got started exercising.

I would like to encourage you to partake in Zen meditation in your daily routine while you immerse yourselves in calisthenics during your week-long visit.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING OLD MAN!

Wah!

Meditation is good for you.

Oh, it is well!

Go with that said! Would you like to try it as well?

Wow, what a curious bunch!

As usual they are an annoying bunch...

My hand! Don't touch that thing with your hand!

I really have plenty of concentration!

Then why aren't you doing it too?

So they are here!
